the black mountain college players present bury the dead

an experimental play by irwin shaw, under the direction of william robert wunsch. the action takes place in america during the second year of the war which will perhaps begin tomorrow night.

private driscoll	duncan dwight private morgan	john stix private levy	ralph beckley private webster	leslie katz private schelling	emery whipple private dean	george randall joan burke	jean jordan
bess schelling	sue spayth martha webster	jane mayhall julia blake	elizabeth pollet katherine driscoll	jane clark elizabeth dean	neltje weston first general	morton steinau second general	dan murphy third general	edward jamieson captain	derek bovingdon sergeant	bela martin first soldier	dave murphy second soldier	richard andrews third soldier	paul goldberg fourth soldier	frank nacke priest	leonard billing
rabbi	claude monteux
doctor	emil willimetz
reporter	kenneth kurtz
editor	ted dreier
first woman	marion nacke second woman	phyllis josephs bevins	john evarts
charley	don page
newsboy	quintus dreier
first businessman	david way second businessman	roman maciejczyk third businessman	harold raymond the voice	william reed

"what is this earth that you cling to it?"

settings designed by george hendrickson. constructed by george hendrickson and george randall. sound effects by sue cragin. public address system courtesy viverette's service station, black mountain.