I told him that I should not interfear that if his wife was the woman that he stated she was I thought no Gentleman would live with her — he then told me that he did not charge her with inconstancy I told him that he had — he then told me that he never had the least cause under the Heavens to treat her ill and he looked upon him self as a Villian for the same —

Being acquainted with Mrs Julia Ann Thompson from her infancy I think that she is an injured woman she has for ever bore the Charrector of a virtuous woman —

In witness I have hereunto set my hand and office
