inal acquaintance) with a Delia Bartlett, a girl of bass notoriety - and after remaining in the neighborhood about one fortnight (during which time your petitioner saw him only once and then only fifteen or twenty minutes) he went away and carried the said Delia with him, as your petitioner has been informed and does verily believe, - averring his intention of never ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ ~~[illegible]~~ with his wife your petitioner again - All which will appear upon examination of the depositions herewith submitted ~~[illegible]~~ In consideration of the premises your petitioner humbly prays your Honorable Body to grant her a divorce and discharge her from the bonds of matrimony with said Seconias as fully to all intents and purposes as if the same had never been entered into - And to grant her such other and further relief in the premises as to your Honbl. Body, may seem proper ——

And your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray &c

Pantego Decr 8th
1827 -

Mark
Rhoda + Bell
her