ed to perpetual self-denial because of claims which are contemned and despised, and at his death she is to be endowed as his Widow who rejected him when living as her Husband.

Your Petitioner humbly prays that the General Assembly will take his case into consideration and grant him relief by an Act to divorce him from the bonds of Matrimony, and your Petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray &c

Wm Holland

Mr Speight of Craven