in or about the year, one thousand eight hundred & two; she intermarried with Solomon Bray: With whom she lived in much harmony, for a considerable time; & by him had two children, one of which is still living; that the said Solomon in or about the year 1806 or 1807, without any just cause of Complaint; against your petitioner separated himself from her, & went to the State of Hampshire; where, as your petitioner is informed & believes, he formed an Adulterous Connexion with another woman & took her into his house, lived with her in a State of open Adultery, & has had several Children by her; that he still continues to live with her in Adultery & your petitioner has lost all hope of his Reformation: & she also says, that he has by his Adulterous course of life, perfected all Claim to her affection & Confidence; & she prays that process may be issued from this Honourable Court; returnable to the next term, on the first Monday after the fourth Monday of March next; then & there, to answer as stated to your petitioners bill: & she prays that she may be divorced from the