of more than two thousand dollars by way of a lottery, not for the purpose of making any real gain by said lottery but only with the view of enabling him to obtain its real value in a convenient time.

for which your humble Petitioner will ever with the most profound respect for your Honours continue to pray.

November 3rd 1817.

William Denison