her, and that through their assistance she might be enabled to secure some thing to support her at a time when she will be unable to assist herself but that the object of their benevolence cannot be obtained with convenience without the aid of your Honorable body your Petitioner further shew eth that she hath given to her Husband Thomas Chiles due Notice of her intention to Petitioner your Honorable body to pass a Law securing to her such estate as she may hereafter acquire, and that he has given his consent thereto — your Petitioner further states to your Honorable body that she has no objection to the said Thomas Chiles being secured against any right of dower or claim that she may have to a distribution of his personal estate, — your therefore