shall not, within two weeks after the time of notice, remove therefrom, the sheriff is required to remove him immediately, and, if necessary, shall summon the power of the county to assist him in so doing.

Peddling without, or failing to show license a misd'r.—R. C. c. 34, s. 44.

45. If any person shall unlawfully hawk or peddle any goods, wares, or merchandise, or shall fail, upon the application of the sheriff or his deputy, or any justice of the peace, to show his license as required by law, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

Fornication and adultery a misd'r.—R. C. c. 34, s. 45.

46. If any man and woman, not being married to each other, shall lewdly and lasciviously associate, bed and cohabit together, they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, however, that the admissions or confessions of one shall not be received in evidence against the other.

Marrying a female under fifteen, wrthout written consent of her father, a misdemeanor.—R. C. c. 34, s. 46.

47. If any person shall marry a female under the age of fifteen years, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor: Provided, that this section shall not extend to cases in which the father of the female may be living, and previous and up to the marrying, shall have consented thereto in writing; and the Superior Courts shall have exclusive original jurisdiction of the offence.

Maiming without malice, how punishable.—R. C. c. 34, s. 47.

48. If any person shall, on purpose and unlawfully, but without malice aforethought, cut or slit the nose, bite or cut off a nose or lip, or ear, or disable any limb or member of any other person, or castrate any other person, or cut off, maim, or disfigure any of the privy members of any other person, with intent to kill, maim, disfigure, disable or render impotent such person; in any such case the person shall, on conviction thereof, be imprisoned at least six months, and fined at the discretion of the court.

Sending, accepting, or bearing challenge to fight a duel, &c., a misd'r.—R. C. c. 34, s. 48.

49. If any person send, accept, or bear a challenge to fight a duel, though no death ensue, he, and all such, as counsel, aid, and abet him, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor; and, on conviction thereof, shall be punished accordingly, and, moreover, be ineligible to any office of trust, honor, or profit in the State, any pardon or reprieve notwithstanding.

Perjury.—R. C. c. 34, s. 49.

50. If any person shall wilfully and corruptly commit perjury on his oath or affirmation, in any suit, controversy, matter, or cause depending in any of the courts of the State, or in any deposition or affidavit taken pursuant to law; or in any oath or affirmation duly administered of, or concerning any matter or thing, whereof such person is lawfully required to be sworn or affirmed; every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and being convicted thereof, shall suffer as prescribed in section twenty-nine, and be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Subornation of perjury.—R. C. c. 34, s. 50.

51. If any person shall, by any means, procure another person to commit such wilful and corrupt perjury as is mentioned in the preceding section, the person so offending shall be punished in like manner as the person committing the perjury.

Accessories to

52. For the more effectual prosecution of accessories be-