and still continues to live separate and apart from your Petitioner. It is supported and maintained by the provisions made for her in the last will and testament aforesaid: and the she conducts herself highly disreputable to her family and disgraceful to herself. In as much as your Petitioner, who is now far advanced in life, may have it in his power to leave his own lawful children in a situation free from reproach, ~~[illegible]~~ and close his days in purity of life, your Petitioner humbly prays that he may be divorced from the bonds of matrimony from this time and forever in as full and ample a manner as though he had never been bound by them: And your Petitioner will, as in duty bound, ever pray.

Elijah his X mark Pope

We the undersigned believe the statements made in the above petition to be true and believe that the said Sally ought to be dealt with according to the prayer of the Petitioner.

[illegible]

[illegible]

John Hart

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

[illegible]

Joel Pierce

Benjamin [illegible]

Lettiro [illegible]

[illegible]

(over) James Tallon