Fayetteville; And the said Stubbs Acknowledged himself an Accomplice, turned States evidence, and thereby Obtained his Acquittal! — since which time he has left this part of the Country, and selected some Other probably more favourable to the exercise of his Villainous principles. —

On her Own part she expects to meet with no difficulty in proving that her conduct has been Uniformly correct — and marked with that decorous circumspection, which adorns the female Character. —

Your Petitioner further States that ~~she is the only~~ it appears from a letter, dated 7th Augt 1817, signed "Mary Stubbs" Manchester in England, satisfactorily Authenticated that the said John B. Stubbs had in that place a wife and two Children previous to his having ~~that~~ Country. which letter will be adduced to your Honorable body, on any requisite Occasion in support of the prayer hereof.

Your Petitioner further States, that she is the only Child of Parents, industrious, and respectable; with a competency to render her ~~life~~ condition in life easy and comfortable. Provided they could extend their aid with safety from the seizure and waste of the said John B. Stubbs — or of his conveying the same away to his Other Family in England.

Your Petitioners exertions, too, would not be wanting to provide a Maintenance for herself & Children provided she, and they could be permitted to enjoy it — And for that purpose she appeals to the clemency of your Honorable body for relief, praying that an Act may be passed securing what property
