es, was duly sworn, and the following are the questions and answers.

Quest 1st by Petitioner

What do you know relative to the conduct of Elizabeth Cole since her marriage with Matthew Cole the Petitioner.

Answer. I was at his house, some time after their Marriage and staid all night; At Bed time Matthew Cole lay down on his bed, and Asked his wife if she was coming to bed, or going to lie with him, she Answered "not this" soon after a young Man who came there to stay all night lay down by Matthew Cole and a pallet was prepared on the floor, on which the said Elizabeth and myself lay, and another young woman and after all was stile in the Room the young man left the said Matthew Cole and came, and lay down by the said Matthew's wife laid his Arms around her, and the said Elizabeth observed that she was afraid her husband was awake. He declared that her husband was Asleep, and the young man further observed that he had before done what he pleased with the said Elizabeth and Matthew her husband never found it out upon which the said Elizabeth laughed And he then Asked her if he might

7