Came on to be heard and the following is a further exemplification thereof.

Matthew Cole
vs.
Betsy Cole

Petition for Divorce
September Term 1816.
(Issues.)

— Whether the Defendant has not been guilty of Adultery since her intermarriage with the petitioner: And whether the Petitioner has not admitted her to Conjugal society after he knew of her criminal act; And whether the Petitioner did not allow of the defendants prostitution or expose her to lewd Company — And whether the Petitioner has been guilty of Adultery since his intermarriage with the defendant.

To try which issues the following Jury was empannelled and sworn (to wit,

1 Angus Mc Intosh
2 James Perry
3 Arch.d Watson
4 Wm Gibson
5 Owen Slaughter
6 Hugh Mc Cairn
7 James Muachin
8 John Mc Alister
9 Chs. Haley
10 John Morrison
11 John Mc Nair
12 Duncan McLaurin

Who find that the defendant has been guilty of adultery since her intermarriage with the Petitioner: — Also find that he has not admitted her to Conjugal society after he knew of her Criminal Act — That he did not allow of the defendants prostitution, nor expose her to lewd Company — And that the Petitioner has not been guilty of Adultery since his intermarriage with the Defendant.

On Which it is Ordered, Sentenced, and decreed by the Court that the said

(Matth