To the Honourable the General Assembly of the State of North Carolina —

The Petition of Charlotte Street, of the Town of Hillsborough, in the aforesaid State,

Humbly sheweth; That your Petitioner's Husband John Street, for a Number of Years has been engaged in the Mercantile Business in this place & others, that during the last war, my said Husband John Street, met with repeated losses, to so large an amount, that it has reduced him from easy Circumstances to entire poverty, after delivering up to the satisfaction of his Debts the whole of his property of every Kind. There still remains a considerable sum yet due to his Creditors, — on some of which his ~~[illegible]~~ person has been taken in execution and committed to Goal, & has been since set at liberty by the act of Assembly for the relief of Insolvent Debtors. — and from the present appearance of things, there is no likely hood of his having it in his power to pay them shortly if ever. — without some more fortunate Occurrence Happens him than he has any right to expect.
