as he has no other way of maintaining himself than by his labour.

Your Petitioner has a family of Helpless Children dependent upon her for their support &c. Your Petitioner has since her said Husbands failure through hard necessity been obliged to take up & pursue the Business of a Millenor, to support herself and helpless Children. — But when ever she may be so fortunate as to have some little mite over what her said Children & Selfs stands in immediate need of, which should be layed up to afford them necessaries in time of sickness, Your Petitioner is prevented from so doing — as it is liable to be taken by execution and sold to satisfy her said Husbands Debts. Therefore in case your said Petitioner should fall sick there is every reason to expect herself & helpless Children must suffer greatly. — Your Petitioner Therefore Humbly prays that your Honourable body will take her case under your consideration and do for her what may seem best in your wisdom;
