leaving your Petitioner and her two Children entirely dependent on her friends for subsistance. Your Petitioner further represents that the said Thomas Elliott after returning from his said confine-ment remained but a few days with your Petitioner, then eloped with a Woman of infamous Character leaving your petitioner and her two Children in the most distressed situation without money or any thing to subsist on; dependant entirely on the Charity of her friends & Neighbours. Your petitioner further states that her said Husband as she is informed & believes took the said Woman with whome he eloped to the State of Georgia, where he parted with her, & removed to the Alabama and there Married a young woman of a respectable family, that on its being discovered that he had a wife living in this Country he was arrested on a Charge of Bigamy and Confined in Jail, & that the father of the young Lady he married has lately been in this County for the purpose of obtaining testimony of his Marriage with your Petitioner — Your Petitioner further states that when she intermarried with the said Thomas Elliott she was possessed of a handsome property the whole of which has been destroyed by his bad conduct, that she now has no other ~~resource~~ resource but her own industry for the support of herself & Children, that she has