embarrassed; that she is in great adversity, and is very much oppressed by the difficulty which she meets to support and educate her children in that medium condition of life which she desires, and ~~to~~ which she and her family have been accustomed to enjoy.

Your petitioner therefore prays your Honorable bodies to pass an act for her relief, to the extent only, that she may thereby be enabled to sell ~~that land~~ her estate in that land without the consent or knowledge of her husband as if she were a feme sole, and that she may cause the moneys thence arising to be secured to her separate use apart from the use of her husband, without liability to pay his debts, or to be subject to his control.

And your petitioner as in duty bound will ever pray &c.

Sally Ann Keith