laws and to your citizens and would be proud to have it in his power to be known & considered as one of them

Having laid his case before your honourable body he submits it to your justice & liberality —

John Jameson