& take the liquor to Dula - (Carson D. retd about 10 o'clock with liquor) - When she Pauline retd from the field the liquor was then - Ann took the Canteen & left with it - took a drink before she left - said it was for Dula - That morning no hours after Dula & Carson D. left, Ann came back - Dula & she would have probably met - Ann did not come back until about an hour before day next morning - Shoes & tail of her dress were wet - she pulled off & got in bed - said her & her mother & Dula had laid out that night & drunk that Canteen of liquor. Melton was afraid to ask her any questions about anything - Ann boasted that she could make Dula do anything - that she always kept everybody about her under her - Ann was scarcely up when Witness came back from field - Wilson Foster came at night, then Tom - then Wash Anderson, then Will: Holder - Gilbert was then working - Witness said to Tom Foster - "when have you seen Dula?" - He said "He saw him this Evening" - Wilson F. said he reckoned they had got married & gone off with his mare - Ann got up late her - you bed time & put on her clothes - Tom Foster & Witness sat up & talked until past midnight - didn't miss Ann at all - ((Saturday morning she said "shid Tom what she said" - said she got up in the night & Pauline & Tom knew nothing about it - On S. or Sunday she said she had killed Laura Foster: commenced cursing about that disease -)) — After seeing Dula Thursday morning didn't see him any more until Friday morning - was starting out to work - came back to get her milk vessels - Dula & Ann were talking secretly when she entered the house - Ann was lying on the bed - didn't see Dula until Saturday morning - tolerably early - wanted James to fix shoes or fiddle - D. & Ann talked a long time - Witness asked Dula she thought