and adjudged by the Court, that the Prisoner at the bar Thomas Dula, be taken hence to the common prison of Iredell County from whence he came and that he there remains in close custody until Friday the 9th day of November 1866, upon which day between the hours of 10 o'clock AM, and 4 o'clock PM, he be taken by the Sheriff of Iredell County to the place of Public execution & that he there be hung by the neck until he be dead. From which Judgment the prisoner craves an appeal to the Supreme Court which is allowed him without giving security for the costs. It appearing to the satisfaction of the Court that the prisoner is insolvent and unable to give security. The prisoner remanded