his clothes off. (The Prisoner excepted)
I have frequently seen him go in direction of James Mettons night & day I did not know where he was going.

Cross Examined. There were other young women living up in direction of James Mettons besides Ann.

Martha Gilbert – testified. On the Wednesday or Thursday before the friday of Laura Foster's disappearance I saw the prisoner on the road between Mrs Dula's & Lotty Foster's – he had a mattock & was skelping along side the path with it. I asked him what he was doing – he said he was fitting the path & making the road wider so he could go along of nights. It was – between 200 & 300 yards from where I saw him standing to the grave

Cross Examined It was about one hundred yards from where he was standing to Mrs Dula's his mother's & it was above the old field towards Lotty Foster's.

Thomas Foster testified. On the Thursday before that Friday the prisoner came to the house of my mother Lotty Foster & wanted to borrow a mattock – said he wanted to work some divilment out of himself. I saw him with the mattock going towards his home. It was after breakfast that he came after the mattock
