The prisoner remarked to me one day that Ann Melton was jealous of me, I replied I did not know how that could be, as I never went into his company, unless she put me in it for a blind.

Cross Examination resumed,

After we went off from Mrs James Scott's Ann Melton said to me, she wanted to kill me ever since I had said that to Jack Atkins & Ben. Ferguson, We had quarrelled that morning because she wanted me to milk the cows & get breakfast both, — We had got off about 100 yds when we turned back to Mrs Scotts, Ann Melton ~~Melton~~ went back a second time, but I could not distinguish the words she used; she said she was going back again to make Mrs Scott promise not to tell any thing that had taken place there, During the difficulty she had charged me with having a bad disease — & also with having had improper intimacy with my brother; the latter charge was untrue.

Mrs James Scott (recalled by the State) testified Pauline Foster came to my house & a few minutes afterwards Ann Melton came,

Here the witness was proceeding to give her version of the difficulty, which occurred
