never heard it doubted."
Here the prisoner rested ~~the~~ his case —

The State resumed its evidence

Jesse Gilbert, testified, I saw Mrs Mary Dula on that Friday, evening, as Carson & myself went by Lotty Foster's house.
Here the State proposed to offer evidence the witness's version of what was said on that occasion to & by the witness Mrs Dula, with the view of contradicting her. Objected to by the prisoner for the reason that this was a collateral matter, sufficiently inquired into, & that the State was precluded from further inquiry, being bound by the answer of the witness. Objection over ruled, & evidence allowed by the Court the witness thus stated.
Carson called to Mrs Dula and asked where her son Tom was? She replied she did not know, had not seen him that day, gone to the muster I expect

The prisoner excepted

This was about 3 o'clock P.M. We walked 15 miles that evening by dark, after leaving her

Martha Gilbert (recalled by the State) testified a long where I saw the prisoner & helping the path
