During the same year the said Jonathan was violently attacked with the Bilious-fever and her treatment to him was so cruel & unnatural that he was obliged to leave his own house, and was carried by one of these deponents to the house of a neighbour where he was taken care of — These deponents heard the said Anna Jane say while her husband was hourly expected to die (and in his presence) that she wished he was dead and gone to the devil where he belonged — that she had no peace nor satisfaction with him.

Levin his X mark Mesick

Taken subscribed & sworn to before us this 16th Nov. 1825 } Isabiah her X mark Mesick

M Hampton JP

E Hartman J P

At the same time & place appeared before us Betsy Allen & made oath that she has been acquainted with Jonathan Bryan from her infancy having been born & raised in the same county. She has always heard that the said Jonathan was a kind & affectionate husband to his first wife: Since her death he married Ann Jane Anders