wife of Jonathan Bryan, and the Deponient saith that she was in Wilmington about the first of June last say 1825 and on her way from town saw Ann Jane Bryan on the river about six Miles from Wilmington about midnight and the said Deponient intreated the said ann Jane to stay with her as she the Sd Deponient was comfortably provided for but ~~she~~ the said ann Jane refused and continued up the river ~~with the young men in a flat~~ and say with three young men in a flat and this Deponent saith that the said ann Jane said that she never would live with Jonathan Bryan again and swore she would make his the said Jonathans Head a Butter for the Hatter and the said ann Jane has not returned since to the present time, and further this Deponient saith not,

Margret her + mark Sikes

~~the above~~

the above Deposition was sworn to before me this 17 day of Novr 1825

David Jones JP